

The proposed frequency, power level, and duty cycle are inconsistent the licensed uses of the band. The petitioner should seek a frequency in a band more suited to Part 15 devices, or substantially reduce the proposed field strength.

Furthermore, unlicensed devices of this type should be restricted to fixed locations (i.e. not permitted in vehicles), in order to make them easily locatable when they cause interference to licensed services.